Extension Lecture on Intellectual Property Rights 15-12-2021

An online extension lecture on Intellectual Property Rights and Its Importance was held on 15th December, 2021 via Google Meet. The event was presided over by Principal of College, Prof (Dr) Maheen Mustafa. The Resource Person for the event was Prof Nadim Akhter Khan, Sr Asst. Professor, Department of Library and Information Science, University of Kashmir.

The technical session started with an excellent and interactive presentation on the topic. The speaker elaborated on what IPRs are and their importance. He gave a brief introduction on IPR and explained various related terms such as copyright, patent, etc. The talk gave a clear idea about the different rights granted by copyright such as the economic and moral rights, right of paternity and right of integrity which comes under the moral rights. The topic of infringement of copyright was dealt with in detail. It created a great impact on the entire audience. Students were taught on how IPR restricts copying others ideas and how this will help the development of new ideas for the betterment of the society. Students learnt how IPR provides total control over a new innovation and its creator. They were also given a platform to discuss how small innovations influence societies at large and how they should indulge in innovating and patenting ideas that will be useful for all the classes of individuals in the society. The session was moderated by Ms Tazeem Zainab, Librarian of the College. At last, the vote of thanks was presented by Ms Tubah Shah, Lecturer, Department of English.
